GENL. DAWES OPENS WAR ON SENATE RULES

Declares That They Increase The Num- ber Of Laws

MANCHESTER, N. H. June 23. (By Associated Press)—Replying to critics of his policy of senate rules reform, Vice President Dawes maintained here tonight that the absence of effective closure in the senate tends rather to increase rather than decrease the number of laws passed by that body and cited in proof statistics of the last five congresses.

Speaking before the Manchester chamber of commerce the vice president called upon those senators who need power of minority obstruction in the senate a defense against federal encroachment upon state rights "to propose some modification of the rules, which, while providing majority closure on all questions which affect ordinary legislation, will permit unlimited debate upon those few occasions when legislation involving alleged encroachments upon the constitutional rights of the states is under consideration."

"Selfish Instincts"
Dealing with the effect of closure on the volume of legislation, he said: "When in great matters it is possible for a selfish human instinct to gratify itself at the expense of the common good, it leaves a trail so broad and so deep that when once pointed out only the blind cannot see it. It stands to reason that anybody who sometimes must grant concessions to individual members in order to secure the right to act as a whole will pass more laws in proportion than a body not under that handicap."

"The purpose of a reform in the present senate rules is not to deprive the minority of an opportunity to be fully heard upon every public question or to deprive them of any of their constitutional rights."

"The purpose is to take away from the minority the right to hold up the majority, which continually results in legislative trades and barter not in the interest of the public good."

"These barter are made in large part secretly. There is no more in the claim that the right of unlimited debate and absence of proper closure bring complete publicity into the business of the senate. On the contrary, it results in the necessity for the majority in secret, time and time again, to buy off the minority or individuals by concessions in legislative transactions, many of which could not endure publicity without reflecting upon the motives of those exacting them."

Senator Underwood
"Threats to hold up the business of the senate unless concessions are made in legislation in which individual senators have a political interest have been openly and successfully made on the floor of the senate itself."

"In the attempt to change the senate rules, we combat one of the deepest instincts of selfish human nature—a desire to retain personal power and prerogatives. Human nature, when there is involved the release of individual power for the common good, is weak."

Rules Defective
"The power of filibustering and of debate without limit of time, made possible under the present defective rules of the senate, has produced such continuous and such serious obstructions to legislation that since May 12, 1916, in 66 instances the majority and minority leaders of the two parties have been compelled to arrange for unanimous consent agreements to enable the consideration of important legislation. This means that they must go like supplicants to every individual member of the senate to get his consent that the majority shall act on important legislation, and consider the conditions in regard to other legislation which the individual senator may desire to impose as the price of his agreement."

Cause Extra Sessions
"Chiefly because of the filibuster."

NORTHERN EUROPE PREDOMINATES IN 1925 IMMIGRATION

Southern And Eastern European Arrivals Dwindled Greatly

WASHINGTON, June 23. (By Associated Press)—A sharp reduction in immigration from Southern and Eastern Europe and an increase from Northern and Western Europe, declared by immigration officials to be the chief purpose of immigration legislation for the last 25 years, has been achieved under the new immigration law. W. W. Hubbard, assistant secretary of labor after analyzing figures covering the last month's operation of the new law today declared that the results of the new law had been gratifying to the immigration bureau.

The bureau's figures, he said, showed that almost 87 percent of all European immigrants admitted to this country during the period were of the Northern and Western European stock, whereas during the years preceding the war, 80 percent were of southern and eastern European stock.

This shift in ratios was credited by Mr. Hubbard to the section of the new immigration law which provides that a number of nationals equivalent to two percent of the number resident in this country of like origin in 1910, may enter the United States annually.

The figure showed that during the first 10 months of operation of the law, only 25,000 of the southern and eastern European stocks had been admitted, while immigrants of Northern and Western European stocks numbered 186,000.

Immigration from Italy for the 10 months was shown to have totaled 5,505. During the same period there was an emigration of Italians totaling 24,951. Only 210 persons were admitted from Greece while emigration of these nationals totaled 5,797.

Of the English, there were 43,504 admissions, and 7,482 left the country, while Irish admitted numbered 35,213, against an emigration of 1,163.

Chinese admitted totaled 1,438, while 2,704 left the country. Japanese admissions totaled 698, against an emigration of 983.

MACHINE GUNS USED AGAINST CANTON MOB

One Killed And Several Wounded—Situation Worse

CANTON, June 23. (By Associated Press)—British and French marines protecting the British concession used machine guns today against Chinese demonstrators who were parading along the Bund and around Shamen, the European quarter. One man was killed and several were wounded.

Thousands of students, workmen, citizens and soldiers took part in the parade and demonstration. Opposite the Victoria Hotel in the British concession firing broke out. The British and French marines replied immediately and the firing lasted 20 minutes.

Chinese soldiers fired from the western side of the Bund. A French merchant, J. P. Siquier, was killed, and the white commissioner of customs, Arthur Edwards, a British marine and two civilians were wounded.

All the evidence, it is declared indicates that the first shots were fired by the Chinese from the Bund.

Will Protect Citizens
WASHINGTON, June 23. (By Associated Press)—Consul General Jenkins at Canton advised the state department today that orders had been issued by the government for the protection of foreign lives and property.

MANILA, June 23. (By Associated Press)—Sailing of a number of vessels scheduled to steam to Hong Kong today was indefinitely postponed due to the general Chinese strike now going on at Hong Kong.

It is understood that the Manila Chinese chamber of commerce contributed $5,000 to the strikers fund.

Reactions Abroad
SAN FRANCISCO, June 23. (By Associated Press)—Conditions in China today took a turn for the worse.

The reaction abroad as well as in foreign centers in China was quickly felt. The New York stock exchange noted the disturbances, shipping companies in Manila hastily revised their schedules, while missionary societies and others interested in the Far East sought more complete reports of the welfare of their representatives.

Attacks against Japanese featured the day's dispatches. The present wave of anti-foreignism has been directed principally against the Japanese and British, so that phase was not unexpected.

Reports of assaults on Japanese came from four different Chinese cities—Wuhan, Chinkiang, Changking and Nanchow—all interior points, although Chinkiang is close to the mouth of Yangtze river.

Chinese To Blame
HONG KONG, June 24. (By Associated Press)—News received here from Canton indicates that the demonstration there yesterday afternoon was comparatively peaceful until a section of the demonstrators about 2:30 in the afternoon fired towards Shamen Island, the foreign settlement, killing a Frenchman and wounding some British subjects. British seamen seeing the British consul general and senior naval officer fired back, charging their rifles, but the senior navy officer immediately ordered cease firing.

The firing from Canton toward Shamen then ceased and order was restored.

THESIS SHOWS OIL
SUPPLY GIVING OUT

CHICAGO, June 23. (By Associated Press)—Unless scientists find a substitute for gasoline and oil, the world will be able to operate automobiles by the end of the twentieth century, according to conclusions set forth today in a graduate thesis by Earle L. Rauber, student in the political economy department of the University of Chicago.

The United States, Rauber finds, has exhausted 64 percent of its crude oil supply and at the present rate of depletion will have used up its last reserves 20 years hence. On this basis, he says the world supply of petroleum will be exhausted in 80 years.

COLONEL HOUSE DENIES HIS TRIP IS OFFICIAL

London, June 23. (AP)—Colonel E. M. House, who was one of the confidential political advisors of the late President Wilson, denied emphatically to The Associated Press today that he is on any sort of an official mission in Europe. He said he was traveling purely as a private citizen and that he was not engaging in political affairs, as has been asserted by some English newspapers.

Colonel House met Premier Stanley Baldwin and Foreign Secretary Austen Chamberlain at the house of commons yesterday. Today the Daily Mail declared Colonel House upon his return to America would report to President Coolidge the results of his interviews in various European countries.

Initial Steps Taken Toward Lower Taxes

WASHINGTON, June 23. (By Associated Press)—The first definite step looking to a tax reduction of $300,000,000 by the next congress was taken Monday at a conference between Chairman Green of the house ways and means committee, and Secretary Mellon and Under Secretary Winston of the treasury.

Mr. Green and the treasury officials were understood to have been in agreement as to the general principles of an administrative program. The committee chairman maintained his opposition to repeal of the estate taxes, favored by the administration, but was said to have found little other ground for differences on the proposal to lighten the burden on the people by a cut of about the same proportions as was involved in the last tax revision.

No attempt was made today to go into details of new rates and the discussion was confined almost wholly to a question of policy. The treasury position has been stated repeatedly in expressions by Mr. Mellon and Mr. Winston, and it will go no further than to submit its facts and figures to house committee, with statements of its views when they are sought.

Mr. Green was informed today of the state of the treasury's finances was given the views of those in charges there as to what they believed practicable in the way of reduction. It was not disclosed whether the analysis of the returns, on the basis of production by specific rates, was gone into, but it was understood that the trend of income to the government from the surtaxes, lowered by the last law, was considered.

JURY NEEDS BUT A MINUTE TO DECIDE ON KRAUSER'S CASE

Grant's Murder Tells Story Of Persecution—Pleads Self Defense

CHICAGO, June 23. (AP)—Walter Krauser who Saturday in the county jail stabbed and fatally wounded Bernard Grant, told a jury today that he was charged with the killing of a policeman, was recommended held to the grand jury today on a charge of murder after a coroner's jury had deliberated less than a minute. Krauser, at one time under sentence of death with Grant for the same slaying is now awaiting a new trial for the policeman's murder, and earlier in the day had appeared in court and heard the date for his murder trial fixed for September 11.

As Krauser was led away from the coroner's inquest, John Grant, brother of Bernard Grant, attempted to attack him and succeeded in striking Krauser once in the face before guards and policeman dragged him away.

Krauser himself testified at the inquest, telling a rambling story of having been "framed" by other prisoners, and declaring that he had been termed a stool pigeon and other opprobrious names by other prisoners because he refused to confess to slaying Grant, whom he blamed in the killing of the policeman. He did not admit on the stand that he had intended to kill Grant when he attacked him, but maintained that several prisoners, Grant among them, had attacked him and he had merely tried to defend himself.

Attorneys for John Scallan and Albert Anselino, gangsters captured last week after a fight between gangsters and policemen in which two policemen were killed, another injured and one of the gangsters killed, said they will ask tomorrow to have the trial of these men, already indicted for murder, postponed from July 27 to the September term of court.

Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, has announced his intention of immediate prosecution, and said he will resist any delay in the trial of the two men, for whom he will ask the death penalty.

OLD LAW USED TO JAIL PEORIA MAN

PEORIA, Ill., June 23. (AP)—J. Milton Seibert, prominent citizen of Peoria, Illinois, must go to jail for failing to pay a judgment of $8,000 secured against him by Oliver Little, a Peoria boy who was shot by Seibert during a hallo-ween celebration in 1923, as a result of the digging up of a rare, in enforced law. The law directs imprisonment of a person for failing to pay judgment based in an act of violence.

Under the law the defendant must serve six months in jail provided the complainant pays his board to the jailer in advance. It is indicated that $10.50 a week will be required to keep Seibert in jail, at the end of the six months period the judgment would still stand but the defendant would be given credit on it at the rate of $1.00 a day for each day served in jail. Oliver Little is a minor and the suit was brought by his mother, Mrs. Mary Little as his next friend.

ATTEMPT TO KILL
OFFICER IS JAILED

Princeton, Ill., June 23.—An attempt to kill Len D. Spaulding for the last three years engaged in prohibition work for the present sheriff and state's attorney was made today when Spaulding was indicted for the murder of a woman and the starter of his automobile it was announced today.

When Spaulding went to the garage for his car he saw there the bombs connected in such a way that they would have exploded when Spaulding stepped on the starter. Spaulding has been relentless in running down bootleggers.

CROSSES TO DESIGNATE
SITE OF FATAL WRECK

Columbus, Ohio, June 23. (AP)—The mute appeal of clusters of white crosses to be used by the state of Ohio on its highway system in designating points where traffic fatalities have occurred, so as to impress upon motorists the necessity of driving carefully.

GO INTO DETAILS OF NEW RATES AND THE DISCUSSION WAS CONFINED ALMOST WHOLLY TO A QUESTION OF POLICY. THE TREASURY POSITION HAS BEEN STATED REPEATEDLY IN EXPRESSIONS BY MR. MELLON AND MR. WINSTON, AND IT WILL GO NO FURTHER THAN TO SUBMIT ITS FACTS AND FIGURES TO HOUSE COMMITTEE, WITH STATEMENTS OF ITS VIEWS WHEN THEY ARE SOUGHT.

Mr. Green was informed today of the state of the treasury's finances was given the views of those in charges there as to what they believed practicable in the way of reduction. PEOPLE BOUND HAND AND FOOT SAYS DARROW

Scopes Lawyers Talk At Tennessee Law College

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., June 23. (By Associated Press)—Clarence Darrow and Bainbridge Colby, associate counsel for the defense of John T. Scopes, charged with violating the Tennessee law prohibiting the teaching of evolution in public schools of the state, tonight were principal speakers at the graduating exercises of the John R. Neal college of law here.

The attorneys motored to Knoxville this afternoon with Dr. John Neal, senior defense counsel, and George W. Rappeley, former professor in the law.

The trip from Dayton to Knoxville, over slippery roads, was a long one, and but one stop was made—at Kingston, where the attorneys visited the courtroom at which circuit court was in session. But a short time was spent in the courtroom, and though the court was in the midst of selecting a jury for a murder trial, it adjourned for five minutes to allow the attorneys to meet their visitors.

No announcement was made during the day of the program the defense had made during the conference, although it was understood they still were discussing feasible expert witnesses for the presentation of the religious and scientific phases of the case.

Darrow's Talk
Mr. Darrow, the principal speaker, told an audience which packed the Knoxville high school auditorium his philosophy of life. Touching upon the laws of the country, Mr. Darrow said:

"The country has fallen upon evil days. It seems that every organization has more to do in endeavoring to force upon the people. They are binding the people hand and foot. Some time they may wake up. I hope it will be before the last vestige of their inhumanity is gone."

"Some time we may have men sent to the legislature to repeal laws instead of to enact more laws. Many of our legislators will vote for anything they think will bring them votes."

"And such is true of some of our senators. They voted prohibition when they had liquor in their own possession. And they still have liquor. Some time we may have a movement to let people alone. Some people would deprive man of all liberty and save him despite himself."

This opinion to a degree also was voiced by Mr. Colby, who spoke briefly after Mr. Darrow. "Any thinking Americans," Mr. Colby said, "are growing the existing conditions with increasing alarm."

Given Degrees
Dr. Neal, president of the law school, who was referred to by Mr. Darrow as the man who framed the first juvenile court law, that of Colorado, presented Mr. Darrow, Mr. Colby and Dudley Malone with the honorary degrees of doctor of laws.

Mr. Malone late tonight had not joined other members of the defense counsel Mr. Scopes, who journeyed to Knoxville with a group of newspaper correspondents, disappeared shortly after the arrival of the party in Knoxville and eluded reporters during the evening.

Unconstrains Almost to the point of shyness, he viewed the activity of his attorneys with interest.

The three counselors returned to their consultation after the exercises.

TRUCK LOAD OF BEER SEIZED BY OFFICERS

MURPHYSBORO, Ill., June 23. (By Associated Press)—A truck containing 105 cases of brewery beer was seized here today by Director A. C. Townsend and Brice Armstrong and E. G. Burns of the Chicago federal prohibition enforcement division. John Stevenson, David Davies, Henry King, Charles Childers and Joe Fielding, alleged to have been unloading the beer into a building, were arrested and placed under bond of $2,000 each.

Search of the Murphysboro brewery failed to reveal anything illegal. The beer which was in pasteboard cartons of 24 bottles each, was destroyed.

RECOMMENDS SUN AS GOOD REMEDY IN CONSUMPTION

Says Old Sol Beneficial But Not A Cure—All Doubt Milk's Value

NEW YORK, June 23. (By Associated Press)—New hope for victims of tuberculosis was held out today by scientists attending the eighty-first annual convention of the American Institute of Homoeopathy.

Sunlight, properly applied, can be made the most efficient foe of the disease, Dr. William F. Barker of the Hahnemann Medical college, Philadelphia, told the National Society of Physical Therapies, which is meeting with the institute.

"Nearly 1,000,000 American school children under 19 years were found to have some form of tuberculosis in a survey two years ago," he said. "One million had spinal curvatures and 500,000 had glandular diseases."

"Only recently have clinicians begun to realize the importance of application of the sun, long used in constructive service, to all animal and vegetable life," he said. "In the treatment of tuberculosis, not only is the infection combated but the body condition which may be infected is strengthened so that it becomes easier to throw off the disease."

Invigorates Skin
The sunlight invigorates the skin and causes a marked increase in flow of the general blood circulation, he said.

"However, I do not advance homoeopathy as a cure-all for without remedy cannot be expected."

Dr. John P. Sutherland, former dean of the Boston University School of Medicine, said the medical profession had some doubts as to the real value of milk as an adult food and that its use may be more injurious than beneficial to mankind.

Thirty percent of all American school children, rich and poor, are undernourished," Dr. Edward E. Hooker, Hartford, Conn., told the convention.

A reward of $100 to any color-blind woman who will submit to clinical observation to determine the cause of the condition, was offered today by Dr. C. A. Harkness of Chicago, a delegate to the convention.

"A colorblind woman is one of the rarest of creatures," Dr. Harkness said. "Though color blindness is common among men, I have never encountered a colorblind woman in 30 years of ophthalmic work."

SENATOR'S FUNERAL WILL BE THURSDAY

WASHINGTON, June 23. (AP)—Funeral services for Senator Ladd of North Dakota who died in a Baltimore hospital yesterday, will be held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at Gawlers Chapel here Thursday. Brief services will attend the placing of the body in a vault at Glenwood cemetery, where it will remain until Mrs. Ladd is strong enough to accompany it on the long trip to Fargo, N. D. for interment.

Rev. J. H. Chapman of the senate, and Dr. Thomas C. McKim, pastor of Takoma Park Presbyterian church, will officiate, and the services will be attended by colleagues of the late senator who are in the city. Congressional committees to represent the two houses will be appointed to accompany the body when it is removed for final burial.

Senator Ladd's body reached Washington this afternoon, and was met at the station by his two sons, Milton and Vernon. The casket, covered with flowers, was taken to the Gawler undertaking establishment.

Mrs. Ladd, who was exhausted by the strain incident to her husband's illness, is bearing up well, but it is not expected that she will be able to accompany the body to North Dakota for a month or longer.

FLEET CORPORATION MAY SELL SHIPS

WASHINGTON, June 23. (By Associated Press)—Authority to negotiate all sales of ships was delegated to President Palmer of the fleet corporation today by the Shipping Board in accordance with a suggestion by President Coolidge.

The action was taken after an all day meeting of the board with approval of a letter signed by Chairman O'Connor to the president, acquainting him with the decision to meet his views, as set forth in a recent communication to the board. The vote on approval of the letter was not made public nor was the text of the letter.

This leaves the exclusive power of negotiating sales to the fleet corporation, subject to approval or disapproval of contracts by the board. The arrangements expected to make for efficiency by removing friction within the board and by encouraging American business men to enter the market for ships.

Newark, N. J., June 23. (AP)—Two men are dead and two others are in a serious condition as a result of an explosion tonight by Hydrochloric acid in an automobile in front of the chemical plant of Chas. Cooper and company.

Attorney general authorized appeal to the supreme court in the International Harvester case. A sweeping reorganization of prohibition enforcement was announced, effective August 1.

REORGANIZATION OF PROHIBITION SERVICE BEGUN

Undesirables To Be Discharged—Pay Bigger Salaries

WASHINGTON, June 23. (By Associated Press)—The biggest shake-up in the enforcement machinery since prohibition was established in the United States has been ordered by the treasury department, effective August 1.

The new program under which Assistant Secretary Andrews will seek to make the country dry was announced today, and the way was paved for radical changes in the personnel now engaged in the work. Only the broad outlines of the program were made public, but Mr. Andrews turned immediately to the task of working out the details and to a survey of the fitness of those now on the job for reappointment when it is put in operation.

State lines will be abolished, federal directors for each state will be eliminated, new districts founded wholly on lines bounding federal judicial districts will be created, and a general decentralization of authority will take place in the reorganization.

Neither Mr. Andrews nor other treasury officials would discuss the probable changes further than to say that only those with ability would be retained. The weeding out of undesirables will be accomplished since Mr. Andrews has no intention of filling the entire list of places immediately and later find he has appointees with whom he is not satisfied.

To Be Supervisors
The Washington headquarters, where authority has centered since the Volstead act was passed, will be conducted under the same officers as at present, but their duties will be more of a supervisory and less of an administrative character. They also will have a greater opportunity to spend time in the field and to work more closely with the prohibition administrators, 22 of whom will be named to have charge of as many districts in the United States with two others in Hawaii and Porto Rico.

Each of the district officers will have two assistants, one of whom will have charge of permissive work, or the control of permits and distribution, while the other will devote his efforts to enforcement. The district offices also will have a chief chemist and a counsel, eliminating the necessity for transmission of thousands of cases to Washington.

Substantial Saving
Mr. Andrews is convinced that a substantial saving in expenditures will be effected with the new scheme. He said he had not been able to calculate the total cost of carrying on the work under the new system, but believed a considerable reduction in personnel would result.

He already has begun consideration of the question of better pay for the administrators and their two assistants. His thought is to make the job attractive, financially, to valuable men, and he has asked Comptroller General McCarl for a ruling on the salary scheme. It was reported that he intended to calculate the total cost of carrying on the work under the new system, but believed a considerable reduction in personnel would result.

There is many a man of uncounted value about evolution who will readily admit that in business affairs he has often permitted other people to make a monkey of him.

The countless thousands who have read and loved Jane Whitecomb Riley's poems will rejoice to know that the people of Greenfield, Ind., have made a certain that Riley's "old swimming hole" made famous in verse will be preserved. The swimming hole, including the land about it, has been purchased for park purposes. The only strange thing is that this has not been done before.

THE MYSTERY OF THE POWER

The place that Senator La Follette held with the people of Wisconsin was abundantly demonstrated at his funeral. For thousands from all parts of the state came to the capital building to look for the last time upon his features. The ceremony had all the dignity that was possible and the simplicity was in accord with the senator's life and the platform that he advocated.

The appointment of Mrs. La Follette is being strongly advocated, or that one of his sons be named to fill out the unexpired term. It is very certain that someone who held the same views as the senator will be named. But on whomsoever the mantle falls, there will not come the strength of leadership that was La Follette's. That can only be the growth of years.

SENATOR BORDEN'S STRENGTH TO INCREASE

Another change in the ranks of the radicals will come about with the appointment of a successor to Senator Ladd of North Dakota. He was a follower of La Follette but had been in public life a comparatively few years. As the governor of North Dakota like Senator Ladd, had the election support of the Non-Partisan League, it can be counted upon that someone sharing their views will be named.

There can be no question that certainly the removal of Senators La Follette and Ladd will make a great change in the senate, and Mark Sullivan believes that Senator Borah, who is a radical of a mild type, will be brought into even greater prominence than he holds today.

Senator Borah is a man of great ability and while often disagreeing with his party, has in the main supported the Republican administration. He has often been termed a radical when that word did not at all apply to his course. Senator Borah seems destined to inherit an increasing power in the senate.

WATER FOR ATHENS

Andre Michalopoulos, who was private secretary to the Greek statesman Venizelos, is now in America studying much needed water systems, in preparation to establishing a modern waterworks in Athens.

The old Greek capital, he says, had 125,000 people 25 years ago, and now has 350,000. There is growth of which many an American metropolis might be proud. Yet Athens is still served by the waterworks established by the Roman Emperor Hadrian 1800 years ago.

Yes, it's time Athens had a new water system. But it was Athens that taught the world to use water. And Rome, which learned nothing from Athens, constructed as fine conduits as any now in existence, and finer public buildings. These countries built credit for the cleanliness which antedated modernity, even if they did lapse from the faith for a few centuries.

"LEGAL" OR "IMMORAL"

A judge in Brooklyn, N. Y., where the judicial output is very large, refuses to apply bootlegging income to alimony in a divorce case, and explains his action in this interesting fashion:

Bootlegging operations, he is quoted as saying, do not necessarily involve moral turpitude. "I don't think bootlegging is immoral, and I won't say it's wrong. But it is illegal, and I cannot fix alimony on the basis of income a man is supposed to derive from an illegal source." Outside the courtroom he remarks:

"I mean just what I said in court. It isn't wrongful or immoral to sell liquor. The prohibition of its sale is simply a matter of statutory restriction, and does not involve a moral question at all."

This is a curious and unexpected position for a judge to take. The bench usually holds that it is every citizen's duty to obey a law just because it is a law, for no other reasons, and that therefore any act in contravention of law is wrong and immoral. Public opinion trends to the same view.

A good argument could be made no doubt, on either side, the negative holding that there are "bad laws" which need not be obeyed because they are bad. But as regards the law in question, a majority of Americans would probably pronounce the judge wrong and his own opinion immoral.

SHAVINGS AND SAWS

With 7,000 left on the Chicago police force, there is still good hunting in that town.

One reason why some people don't grasp golden opportunities is, that they fail to see the glitter of the golden part.

The movie hero who knows how to handle a gun might be dubbed a shooting star.

Judging from the market price of hogs, "bringing home the bacon" is now a rather expensive feat.

Some people are more agreeable to talk with than to listen to.

It is said that all the people in the world could live in the state of Texas but there is doubt whether the population of Mexico would be welcome.

While all of us pay for everything we get, we help the other fellow to do the same.

Babson says the women should come out of the kitchen and take care of the children. Most of them would rather stay in the kitchen.

One good thing about a hard road is, that the bottom can't drop out of it.

In an Ohio community a concern has made money renting skills, probably because the patrons are afraid to kick when the rent is raised.

A Chicago gunman was put under $45,000 bond for stealing a ballot box. He went out of his time and got caught.

A woman arrested for a $22.00 robbery said city police didn't understand financial matters. Maybe she didn't offer to divide the swag.

WE SHOULD ABOLISH THE REVOLVER ENTIRELY

(By Chester Rowell)

The "gun" is more dangerous than protection, even in a policeman's hands. You read the story of the Chicago policeman who shot a collector dead because he came into a service station on his route armed and asked for money. If the collector had not been armed, he would not have aroused suspicion.

And, even if he had been the hold-up man for whom the policeman took him, he could have been stopped with a club better than with a "gun."

Or, if the circumstances had been such as to require arming, policeman and collector would have been better off with a rifle.

The revolver should be abolished entirely, for everybody, including policeman.

Where the Professor is Mistaken

"Long under the influence of scholarship," says Professor Moffat of Glasgow, the people of Great Britain regard with surprise any serious attempt to discredit evolution.

The professor is making the same mistake that we once made. The "people" of England are not, and never have been, "under the influence of scholarship." Most of them do not know what it is, and would not care if they did.

Professor Moffat is thinking of the fraction of the people in which his acquaintance lies. That part are equally surprised here.

We thought, fifty years ago, that because they were convinced, the people were convinced. We know better now.

Professor Moffat can find quite as many people in England as in America who are not "under the influence of scholarship," and doubtless they have just as preposterous notions.

The difference is that the professor does not include them in "the people." Neither did some of us, until they suddenly woke up and made us.

Nobody is Right All The Time

"Better Mailing Week" served a purpose, in advertising the sorts of mailing blunders people make, and in perhaps reminding some of them not to make them so often.

Special Sale—Silk Umbrellas greatly reduced prices, this week at Harney's.

But it may also serve the purpose of reminding all of us of the fallacy of any reform which involves training the whole people to do anything right all the time. If millions of people mail letters with no address, some of those millions will occasionally look the wrong way in crossing a street, and walk into an automobile. If many of them forget to sign or stamp their letters, some of them are going to step on the gas instead of the brake. Most of us do most things right most of the time. But nobody does everything right always.

That is the reason machinery has to be made "fool proof." There are few fools.

But all of us are momentary fools some times.

Little to Learn Of Aethelbert

Archaeology makes history news. So when workmen excavating Sherborne Abbey dug up the stone coffin of Aethelbert, king of the West Saxons, who had lain in merciful oblivion for over a thousand years, doubtless many a newspaper readers had at least a momentary curiosity aroused as to who this Aethelbert was.

There is not much to tell. The five brief years of his reign, from 860 to 865, were among the least glorious of British history.

It was the time of the Viking raids, one of which the Anglo-Saxon Chronicle describes in what was then the English language.

"And thence winters was Inwaeras broður one Healfdene on Welsexum on Deofnasire mid xlii seipum; and hipe mon there oflog one dece monna mid him, and xi monna his heres."

Already in the time of Aethelbert's grandfather Egbert, and of his father Aethelwulf, the Norse raiders came and during the fifteen years of the reigns of himself and his two brothers, they overran the Northern country and harried even Wessex.

Not until the time of his younger brother Alfred the Great, was peace made with them, and with it the foundations of what became the Kingdom of England.

It was a sorry reign, of which now, a thousand years later, we are reminded by the digging up of a coffin.

THREE PRESBYTERIAN PREACHERS

(BY ENSLEY MOORE)
Member Illinois Historical Society

There were three notable pastore of Presbyterian churches here, about 1850 and later. First, as a corner was the Rev. L. M. Glover, a native of Michigan (or New York) who came in 1843.

He was pastor of the First Presbyterian church "New School" and had the longest pastorate any Presbyterian ever had. He finished his pastorate with his life. Dr. Glover secured the building of the second edifice occupied by his people, on the present site of the Journal office, the property including the part of the block between State and Morgan and West streets and the alley east of it. The first building burned in 1861.

Mr. Glover saw to the building of a much grander church in 1864.

That burned, as its predecessor had done, but Dr. Glover was spared the sorrow of seeing it go. Dr. Glover's was the longest pastorate among the Presbyterians, if not of any denomination here.

In 1858 he made a trip to Europe, and returned with a visit with relatives at Bluffs.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Arnett and Mrs. Lucile Tamer of Bluffs were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James McLain, Sunday.

Mrs. L. Davis of Arenzville visited her sisters Mrs. Mary Senn and Mrs. Sam Kuhlman, on Sunday.

Miss Norma Davis of Arenzville and Homer Campbell of Jacksonville were Sunday guests of Miss Hazel Kuhlman.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Berger, who has been a patient at Passavant Hospital Jacksonville left the hospital Sunday for the home of her uncle J. G. Berger in Jacksonville and will return to her home in this place this week.

HOW FAST WE MOVE

In making our rounds the other day and thinking of the Centennial year and the wonderful progress that has taken place in the last few years, we dropped in to Merrigan's and saw them making ice cream without the use of ice. Then we saw them shipping this same ice cream to a distance of 40 miles without the use of ice, and we were told and shown how ice cream can be made, shipped and retailed without the use of ice.

The cream is frozen with the refrigerating system and shipped in patented, fiber jackets to its destination and kept cold and hard by electric refrigeration which caused us to think some day we will not use ice at all.

As we were watching the cream being frozen we noticed large cans of pure jersey cream being delivered by the different dairy farmers—the Stevensons, Blacks, Gonavea, Ashbaker, the local creamery and the Morgan dairy, also Charles Aker, and we learned that these different firms each receives a nice weekly check which all helps good old Morgan county.

INJURES TOES
Charles Winterbottom of 202 North Prairie street was painfully injured while working on the new hotel yesterday when he dropped a heavy pipe wrench on his toes. He was given medical attention immediately and it was found that three toes were severely hurt. He was taken to Passavant hospital and is forbidden to be on his feet.

RELEASE JURORS WHO DISBELIEVE IN LAW

QUINCY, Ill., June 23. (By Associated Press.)—Much difficulty has been experienced in securing jurors in the trial of cases of violation of the Illinois prohibition law before the county court this week. This morning Judge Nauert called the attorneys for the state and defense together and submitted to them a proposition to the effect that all of the regular panel of 24 be requested to state whether they could not conscientiously convict under the present law of the state relating to cases of this kind. The attorneys agreed, and the court asked those who felt thus toward the law stand up. Nine of the panel arose, and they were discharged from further duty. It was the first time this had been attempted here.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE LEAVES FOR HOLIDAY IN SWAMPSCOTT, MASS.

Train Given Greetings In Cities En Route—House Near Sea

NEW YORK, June 23. (By Associated Press.)—The special train which is carrying President Coolidge to the summer white house at Swampscott, Mass., arrived at Pennsylvania station at 6:10 o'clock eastern standard time and left at 6:20.

The president was greeted in his car by Elsie Lee Eagen, station master at Pennsylvania station who talked to the president for several minutes.

"I knew the president when he was vice president," Mrs. Eagen said, "and I just told him that I was glad to see him again."

There were only about 40 persons on the platform when the train arrived and most of these were newspapermen or railroad employees. Detectives at the gates kept a few curious persons from ascending to the platform, but most of the persons in the station were apparently unaware of the president's arrival. When word that he was in the rear car of the train spread, many persons on the train and the opposite side of the platform got out to look at the president and Mrs. Coolidge.

Until a few minutes before the train left, the president sat in his private car reading from a magazine, with Mrs. Coolidge beside him reading a book.

Just as the train was leaving they went out to the observation platform in the rear of the car and the president acknowledged the salutations of the persons on the platform by waving from his car.

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., June 23. (By Associated Press.)—President and Mrs. Coolidge will find white court, the spacious house near the sea that has been placed at their disposal for the summer, in readiness, and friends of long standing anxious to make their stay restful and pleasant.

Detaining at Salem before breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge will be greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Stearns, their close friends who will spend the summer at their estate adjoining white court, and Senator Butler of Massachusetts, the president's confidant.

At the president's request there will be no formal welcome, and after a brief exchange of greetings, he will motor to Swampscott. There he will find waiting for him a breakfast prepared by Julia Joubert, the White House cook, who arrived today on the Mayflower with two assistants and several of the executive mansion servants.

The presidential yacht, which sailed from Washington navy yard Saturday, anchored off of Swampscott this evening.

Aboard in addition to the crew and the servants were the two white house pets—Paul Pry, the airedale, and Rob Roy, the white collie. The Mayflower will remain in Marblehead harbor, which is within sight of white court, and available for short cruises.

WORCESTER, Mass., June 24. (By Associated Press.)—President Coolidge's special train reached Worcester at 1:30 daylight saving time this morning and after engines had been shifted it was taken over to the Boston and Maine tracks and left on the final lap of the journey. About 50 persons, principally railroad men, were at the station when the train arrived.

Richard Butler helped represent Woodson in the city yesterday.

GENERAL DAWES OPENS WAR ON SENATE RULES

ter in the last eight Congresses, and the Senate has been a constant source of trouble to the president.

A moment's thought here will convince one of the lack of foundation for the claim that filibustering militates against multiplicity of laws. No one can justly claim that these seven extra sessions of Congress did not result in a large addition to the number of laws which would have been passed in the 16 regular sessions as compared with the 23 sessions actually held. As a matter of fact, during these extra sessions a total of 386 bills and 98 public resolutions were enacted.

"It is an absurdity to maintain that any essential right which is claimed is now protected under the Senate rules cannot be protected unless there exists in connection with all legislative procedure this power of hold up."

"The whole theory of our government is based upon the principle of the power of majorities to act, limited by the checks and balances of the Constitution which protect the rights of the states and the individual rights of man under the old bill of rights, the establishment of which has ever marked the progress of civilization."

"The people of this nation believe in their Constitution, but they do not understand the justice of Senate rules under which at times one Senator exercises a power greater than the veto power granted by the Constitution to the President of the United States; under which at times one Senator can render the Senate impotent, and under which secret legislative barter is encouraged, which not only modifies the due course of legislative processes, but legislation itself."

Such a power brings the Senate into disrepute, demoralizes its orderly procedure and interferes with its power to properly act under its constitutional authority. It is wrong, it is un-American, and in my judgment, the American people demand that Senators abolish it."

SERGEANT NEW HEAD OF NORTHWESTERN RY.

NEW YORK, June 23. (By Associated Press.)—Fred W. Sergeant, heretofore vice president and general counsel for the Chicago and Northwestern Railway company, today was elected president of the road and its affiliated lines—The Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha—upon the retirement of Chairman Marvin H. Huggitt and President Wm. H. Finley from active service.

Actual consolidation of the Northwestern and the Omaha was drawn a step nearer completion when the directors declared operative a plan for exchange of shares and sought formal approval of the action from the interstate commerce commission. Omaha minority stock holders last January received an offer of three Northwestern common shares for two of Omaha preferred and five shares of Northwestern common for seven of Omaha common. Most of them have deposited their securities under the plan.

WILL BUILD LONGEST TUNNEL IN THE WORLD

SEATTLE, (AP)—Citizens of Washington, led by Judge Austin E. Griffiths of this city, have formed the Cascade Tunnel association to effect, with national, state and railroad financing, the boring of a tunnel 30 miles long linking the eastern and western halves of their commonwealth.

This would be the longest tunnel in the world in Colorado the Moffat Tunnel, six miles long, under the Continental Divide, to carry trains and automobiles, is more than half built. In the Alps, the Simplon Tunnel, 12 1/2 miles long, for trains only, has one portal in Switzerland and the other in Italy. Those two countries built it.

The tunnel under the Cascade Mountains, for transcontinental railroads, three of which have Puget Sound termini here, was the second great dream of Gen. H. M. Chittenden, who came to Seattle as army district engineer and lived here until his death in 1917.

GANGSTERS DENY THEY WERE HIRED TO MURDER

Kansas City, Mo., June 23. (AP)—Interest in the alleged plot of Charles B. Davies, prominent Concordia, Kansas, man to kill his wife, shifted to Kansas City today where seven alleged gangsters named by Davies as involved in the plot, were arraigned on charges of assault with intent to kill on warrants from Concordia. All entered pleas of not guilty and six of them were sent to jail in default of $10,000 bond each.

Davies confessed yesterday to County Attorney Leon A. Lundblade of Cloud county, Kansas, that he had hired Walter J. Mosely, alleged Kansas City gangster, to kill Mrs. Davies, paying $2,000 with the promise of $3,000 more after the deed was done. The murder attempt failed and Mrs. Davies recovered after being badly beaten in her bedroom.

BOOM STARTS FOR BOB LAFOLETTE JR.

MADISON, Wis., June 23. (By Associated Press.)—The activity among the various forces in the progressive ranks manifested itself today over the selection of a candidate for the unexpected term of the late Senator Robert M. LaFollette.

Word was unofficially passed today that Mrs. LaFollette was not desirous of becoming a candidate but it is understood that she is not averse to having her son, Robert M. Jr., make the race. As a consequence, a boom has been started in behalf of Robert Jr.

The candidacy of the son, would undoubtedly cause some resentment from men who during their life time have fought shoulder to shoulder with his father in behalf of the progressive movement and are not enthusiastic about a youth being lifted over their heads. It is understood that he is scheduled for a conference with Governor Blaine regarding the political situation tomorrow or Thursday.

Just what attitude the governor will take is a matter of conjecture. However, at present the governor is in a strategic position because he may choose any one of three ways by which the successor to Senator LaFollette shall be selected.

In addition, should the governor decide to call a special election, the date would be optional with him.

Friends of Governor Blaine in the legislature are inclined to regard the candidacy of any member of the LaFollette family as a move to head off the governor's reputed intention to become a candidate for senator.

MEN FOUND GUILTY OF RUNNING DIVORCE MILL

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 23. (By Associated Press.)—Leonard W. Horton, master in chancery, and his law partner, Francis P. Dougherty, both Providence attorneys, were found guilty of conspiracy late today by a jury trying the first cases arising out of a recent investigation into an alleged "divorce mill" in Rhode Island. The men were charged with conspiracy to defraud public justice by procuring a decree of divorce through a false and fraudulent deposition.

The divorce decree involved was granted in March of this year to Genevieve F. Thomas, now of New York City, in her suit against Edwin T. Thomas. Emanuel George Rands of Providence, purported signer of the deposition which the state charged was fraudulent, denied knowledge of its contents and said that he had signed the paper by request of Dougherty. A police inspector and a private detective testified that street addresses in other deposition admitted in evidence were false.

Counsel for the defense indicated tonight that a new trial would be sought. A total of 26 public and seven secret indictments were brought by the special grand jury which was summoned in May to consider evidence which Attorney General Charles A. Sisson, in charge of the investigation said disclosed a hundred recent fraudulently obtained divorces.

WIFE DENIES CHARGES

New York, June 23. (AP)—A blanket denial of all charges and a move for the dismissal of the complaint of Thomas A. Symington, millionaire motor accessories manufacturer, was the defense entered today in behalf of Mrs. Ada Mae Symington, to his suit for divorce on grounds of infidelity. Justice Ford reserved decision on the motion.

EXPLORERS LEAVE FOR OSLO NORWAY

KINGS BAY, SPITZBERGEN, Monday June 22. (By Associated Press)—Roald Amundsen, Lincoln Ellsworth and the other members of the expedition which recently made an ineffectual attempt to reach the North pole by airplane from Spitzbergen, will sail tomorrow from King's Bay on board the Steamer Albr V. Selmar for Oslo, Norway. They will take with them the sealplane which brought them back from the arctic circle to Spitzbergen.

The first batch of congratulatory messages, including those from American geographical societies, were delivered to Amundsen today.

Ellsworth, who only yesterday received the news of the death of his father, James W. Ellsworth, at Florence, Italy on June 3, after he is said to have given up hope for the safety of his son, plans to leave for the United States shortly after his arrival at the Norwegian port.

Amundsen today told The Associated Press that he looked upon the recent expedition as experimental, his dream for years having been to make a flight over the pole, landing in Alaska. For this project he had now grouped much additional and valuable knowledge, but he was unable to say when he would undertake the next flight, as his plans are as yet unformulated. He said he believed land exists near the North pole, on the American side, which he purposed to discover.

MENUS FOR THE FAMILY

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Chilled cantaloupe, poached eggs on graham toast, crisp broiled bacon, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Baked potatoes, creamed dried beef, carrot salad, raisin bread, caramel cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Baked bluefish, new potatoes in butter, creamed peas, stuffed tomato salad, raspberry shortcake, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

Bones must be carefully watched when small persons eat fish, but aside from this fish is an excellent food for children.

Very young children eat tomatoes these days. Babies are given strained tomato juice just as they are orange juice and children of four years may eat the flesh of the raw vegetable. The skin, of course, must be removed.

Caramel Cookies
One cup butter, 2 cups brown sugar, 2 eggs 1 cup sour cream, 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Soften butter and beat in sugar. Beat until creamy. Beat in 1 cup of flour. Add eggs well beaten and beat mixture well. Mix and sift 3 cups of flour with salt and soda. Add half to first mixture and beat until smooth. Beat in milk and when smooth add remaining flour mixture. Stir well and add vanilla. Add more flour if necessary. Form into a small roll and put in the ice box until firm and very cold. Cut with a sharp knife and bake in a moderately quick oven for six or eight minutes.

This recipe can be "made up" in the evening and the dough chilled over night. Then the cookies are cut and baked early in the morning before the sun is high and hot.

The rolls should be made about as thick as a rolling pin and the slices cut as thin as possible. (Copyright, 1925, NEA Service, Inc.)

Let Jacksonville be represented in this.

The following is reprinted from the Journal of The National Educational Association in order to give the readers of Jay Eme's Crumbs an opportunity to vote for the selections from literature which they consider the best to be given to children to memorize.

"A small part of our literature is so fine in thought and so beautiful in form that we wish our children to build it into their very lives to form a background of American ideals, a philosophy of life, and an appreciation of the beautiful in nature and literature. The body of such material that every American child should learn in this exact way is necessarily small, but it is of primary importance to every teacher and every citizen. In a sense it is almost the backbone of our common culture."

In line with the extensive curriculum revision that is now going on throughout the country, The Journal of the National Educational Association proposes during the school year 1925-26 to give attention to this problem of material to be memorized—to publish lists and, as the material is agreed upon, to publish the poems and prose selections that are most widely acceptable. The following lists are taken from a careful study of 50 representative courses of study in American cities of various sizes, which was made by Velda C. Bamesberger.

They show what the prevailing practice was in 1920. They are a beginning with which we may start. They include poetry only. Prose items should be added. Perhaps they give too little attention to recent authors. Will you not vote for the six in each list which you believe should be memorized by the children in that grade, writing in the blank spaces ones that you think should be added. Other teachers and parents will probably wish to do likewise. Every American should be interested in this problem. Here is the biggest opportunity that has ever been given for a vital part of the course of study to be determined from the classrooms and the homes. The course of study makers want to know what you think about our American literary heritage."

Omaha, (Ex)—Mrs. Minnie Madden Fiske, the actress, addressed a group of Omaha women on the subject of the steel trap and its uses in trapping. She did not deny the wearing of furs. She only asked her hearers to decline to wear furs that come with the taint of unnecessary cruelty in their taking. She was emphatic in asserting that the steel trap method of catching wild animals is needlessly cruel.

YALE GOLFER LEADS IN UNIVERSITY MEET

MONTCLAIR, N. J., June 23. (By Associated Press.)—Paul Haviland of Yale, with a 75, led a large field in the first round of the intercollegiate golf championship on the upper Montclair course today.

Haviland was closely followed by Burton Mudge of Princeton with 77.

The day's scores gave Dartmouth a lead of four strokes over Yale and Harvard, with Princeton in fourth place. For the first two days the collection will play for team honors and the remainder of the week will be given over to settling individual supremacy.

Doctor Cunningham of Yale, who is defending his title, had a poor round, his drive on one hole falling a wood pile, necessitating a seven. Two sixes, the result of being off the line, helped to make his total 81.

ST. LOUIS PLAYERS SWEEP GOLF FIELD

Take First, Second and Third—Great Hains Drown Hopes of Many.

OMAHA, Neb., June 23. (By Associated Press.)—James Munton of St. Louis, defending his title as Trans-Mississippi Golf champion, finished the qualifying round today at the Omaha field club by winning the gold medal. His total score for the 36 holes was 72-78-150, a duplicate of the tally turned in by Walter Murray, also of St. Louis, but the champion won in a play off during a driving rain that drenched all the late finishers.

The rain which had threatened during both days of the qualifying rounds descended in torrents during the last hour of play today and not only soaked the players but drowned the hopes of several who had chances to qualify. In addition to gaining first and second place, St. Louis carried away third honors through Lawson Watts, who scored the best round today with a par 73, giving him a total of 152. Fourth place at 153 was shared by J. Scott of Wichita, Kansas, and J. Hughes and Fred Vette of Omaha. There was a triple tie for next place among Clarence Wolfe of St. Louis, Lee Heron of Sioux City and Blaine Young of Omaha, who had 154 each.

MACKMEN BEAT BOSTON WITH RALLY IN NINTH

PHILADELPHIA, June 23. (By Associated Press.)—After being blanked for eight innings, the Athletics made a rally in the ninth and scored three runs to beat Boston by a score of 3 to 2. Two wild throws by Lucey, a former pitcher playing shortstop for the visitors helped the Mackmen but Bill Bagwell, pinch hitting for Rommel in the ninth hit to left for two bases, sending the tying and winning runs across the plate after two were out.

Score: Boston 000 000 000—2 6 6 Philadelphia 000 000 003—3 8 1 Batteries: Quinn and Plimlich; Harris, Rommel and Cochrane.

Billy Evans SAYS

Collegians in Demand

Two famous college baseball stars have ended their days as "rah, rah" athletes. Shortstop Walter Gautreau and Pitcher Owen Carroll of Holy Cross.

It is only natural they should be in demand by major league clubs. Both intend to take a fling at the professional game. Carroll, according to report has been the property of the Detroit club of the American League for several years. The story is that he was placed under contract two years ago when he gave evidence of being quite a pitcher.

Recently Manager John McGraw of the New York Giants made Carroll an offer. It is said the amount was considerably in advance of what his Detroit contract calls for.

Naturally Carroll would prefer to play for the advanced Detroit club of the American League. It is said that an effort is being made to break the Detroit connection on the grounds that Carroll was a minor when he entered into it.

This contention is similar to the case which involved George Sisler, when Pittsburgh of the National and St. Louis of the American League were fighting for his services.

Case of Carroll

Sisler, it seems, was only 17 when he agreed to go to Pittsburgh. Later he signed with St. Louis, then under Branch Rickey, who has coached Sisler at Michigan.

Pittsburgh's claim to Sisler was declared void and he was made the property of the St. Louis club.

Since Carroll is conceded to be the greatest college pitcher of the last decade, it will be interesting to see what disposition is made of his case. He is a pitcher worth fighting for.

Jack Barry, former star shortstop of the Athletics, now baseball coach at Holy Cross, is strong for Carroll. Some time ago while discussing college stars with me he commented as follows on Carroll.

"Carroll is a finished pitcher. He can step right into the majors from the college field and deliver. He has everything a big league pitcher should have."

Like most major league clubs, Detroit can stand another good pitcher. Incidentally, McGraw could use him as some of the veteran Giants are going none too well.

Recent Minor Stars

The failure of the minors to develop big leaguers in proportion to the demand has caused the scouts to pay close attention to the colleges.

Within the next two weeks at least 20 college stars will join various major league clubs for a trial.

Prominent among these is Captain Eddie Farrell of Pennsylvania. He is a shortstop who comes to the New York Giants.

While there is little chance of him breaking into the lineup, McGraw is strong for a capable secondary defense.

It is understood that Gautreau of Holy Cross, considered the best college second-sacker in the east, is the property of the Philadelphia Athletics and that he will be sent to Portland of the Pacific Coast League for a year of seasoning.

Such a procedure worked out in great shape with Catcher Gordon Cochrane, who starred for Boston University. He spent one year at Portland and is now rated one of the best catchers in the American League.

Holy Cross is famous for turning out big league stars. Some of the game's greatest players received their early training there.

BARNES AND KIRKWOOD SUCCESSFUL AT TROON

TRIGON, Scotland, June 23. (By Associated Press.)—Numbered among the eighty one players who have qualified for the British open championship are MacDonald Smith, Jim Barnes and Joe Kirkwood, American professionals, whose aggregate scores in the two qualifying rounds were well up with the leaders, Kirkwood had 153, Smith 154 and Barnes 155.

With only two exceptions every one who had ever been anybody in British professional golf played well enough to get in with the survivors and most of the un-honored and unsung competitors fell by the wayside. The only notable failures were James Braid several times titleholder and George Gadd, the professional of the fashionable Roehampton club.

All the well known foreigners who came here in quest of the championship are also among those who earned the right to try for the cup on battle ground shifts on Thursday from Troon to Prestwick, three miles down the Ayrshire coast.

The Prime Function of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana)

A bulletin of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States says: "The function of business is to provide for the material needs of mankind and to increase the wealth of the world and the value and happiness of life." These words might have been written to describe the ideals animating the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

Among the more important "material needs" of society are the products of petroleum. When progress ushered in the industrial era, animal and vegetable oils were the only lubricants available and the quantity of these was insufficient to permit unlimited expansion.

Petroleum was discovered just when it was needed to supply the enormous quantities of lubricants required by this mechanical age.

The importance of gasoline as a servant of society came with the invention of the internal combustion engine and its application to the automobile. This product is now indispensable.

WHEAT IS RESPONSIVE TO REPORTS OF RUST
CHICAGO, June 23. (By Associated Press)—Wheat prices today proved responsive to increasingly numerous reports about the presence of black rust both in Canada and the Dakotas. Actual damage by the plague was reported from Anemia, North Dakota. Closing quotations on wheat were unsettled 1 1/2 to 2 1/2c not higher. July $1.55 1/2 to $1.55 1/2, with corn unchanged to 1/2c up, oats at 1/2c decline to 1/2c advance, and provisions unchanged to 1/2c lower. Upward swing in the price of wheat began as soon as trading opened. An unexpected advance in wheat quotations at Liverpool did a good deal to help lift values here, and so likewise did advice telling of too much rainfall in some sections where harvesting of domestic winter wheat in progress, notably parts of the southwest and of the Ohio valley. The chief stimulus to buyers, however, was news that black rust had been found widespread in Manitoba, Canada and in Saskatchewan as well. Meanwhile particular notice was also taken of word from a well known Chicago crop expert that between Aberdeen, South Dakota, and Fargo, N. D., black rust was prevalent in many fields. With weather conditions said to be such as to favor extension of black rust, broader speculative buying of wheat was evident as the market advanced. On the other hand, top prices failed to hold in the face of profit-taking sales after a bulge of about three cents. Gossip was current during the day that farmers southwest were storing more wheat than they were marketing. Export sales today were estimated at 300,000 bushels of wheat and 800,000 bushels of rye. Corn and oats sympathized with the advance of wheat, but reacted under selling to realize profits. Liberal selling by commission houses weakened the provision market after an early upturn.

CHICAGO BUTTER MARKET.
CHICAGO, June 23. (AP)—The butter market appeared easy on all grades today with trade very quiet. The demand for creamery butter was limited and came mostly from shorts on the June future options. Small lots of this grade were exceptionally slow sale at the inside price and long lines were not moving freely although considerable business was transacted early in the day at 43 cents. Dealers as a rule were free sellers at prices listed and in some quarters inclined to offer concessions. The centralized car market ruled about steady with the supply rather limited and trade quiet. More inquiry was reported for 88 score cars but very few were available.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK REVIEW
Kansas City Stock Yards, June 22. (AP)—Cattle—receipts 15,000 were slightly larger than a week ago, though no more than normal for this season of the year. Undercutting at the next week will witness a material increase in the runs and by the middle of July grass and southwest cattle will be in liberal supply. Late last week there was a general advance in fat cattle, but only a slight gain in stockers and feeders. Today's market held all of last week's advance except for the plain and ordinary quality, and these were getting rather scarce and general conditions are favorable for a good demand for them during the summer season. Grass fat and short fed class will come in for the principal price fluctuations in the next few weeks.
Prime yearling, light and medium weight fed steers are selling at $11 to $11.75; heifers $10 to $10.75; short fed classes $7.75 to $9.75; and grass fat steers $5 to 7.50. Choice stockers and feeders are bringing 6.50 to $7.25 and selected fleshy feeders $7.75 to $8.50. The plain to fairly good stockers can be bought at $5 to $6.25 and general prices are in line with last year at this season. Range cows and heifers taken out for feeding purposes do not have the branded with the letter E provided they are for feeding purposes.
Hogs prices held steady at last week's advance that took the market to the highest position since early last April. There is considerable stability in demand and the market has the support from the buying side. The top price today was $13.25 and bulk of sales $12.50 to $13.15. Stock hogs and pigs show only a moderate advance and are selling at $11.75 to $12.25.
Lambs are 50 cents higher than a week ago, best selling at $15 to $15.50. Fat ewes are bringing $5 to $6.50 and wethers $6.50 to $8.50. Yearling breeding ewes old up to $9 and older ewes 7.50 to $8.50. Offerings are increasing.

TO KEEP OPEN
HOUSE AT LIBRARY

Many Interesting Relics May be Seen at Historical Exhibit Today.

Arrangements have been made to keep open house from three o'clock to five this afternoon in that part of the library building devoted to the Historical Relic Exhibit. Among the relics that have been collected recently, is an old cane belonging to Andrew Moore which was brought to Jacksonville by his father Joshua Moore in 1832. Another addition is an old lock once used on the Cohn Shoemaker Shop which was located where the G and H Shop now is.

An especially interesting relic is a desk used by Dr. George Cadwell, the first doctor in Morgan County and also the first State Senator of the county. The desk is thought to be about a hundred and twenty-five years old but is well preserved. There is an interesting history connected with it. It was purchased by Dr. Cadwell from a poor French family and was used as a storage place for mail that was carried from Vandalia to old Fort Charters which was then located on the Illinois river.

Two big hat boxes and twenty old fashioned hats loaned by Miss Lucy Sturtevant, 711 Beecher avenue, is another feature of the exhibit that is worth seeing. Among the display of hats is a Paris bonnet of 1829.

COL. HUNTON DIES
IN EASTERN CITY

Deceased Was Well Known Resident of Jacksonville For Many Years.

A telegram received here Tuesday by A. G. Leedy, secretary of the Frania Lodge 1, O. O. F., brought the news to Jacksonville of the death of Col. G. H. Hunton of Enfield, New Hampshire. Col. Hunton had been for a number of years resident in Chicago, altho for a long period he was a citizen of Jacksonville. As a merchant tailor he conducted a business in the Ayers Block on West State street, and subsequently created the Hunton building just east of the Dunlap hotel, which was in recent years acquired by Mr. Fisher of Edwardstown, and was recently razed to make place for the new hotel.

Col. Hunton was for years active in politics and interested in all civic affairs. After removing to Chicago he continued to be interested in politics in the ward in which he lived and visitors from Jacksonville to the last two Republican national conventions held in Chicago found him one of the ushers.

He is survived by his wife and one son. The telegram to Mr. Leedy did not state whether interment would be in the east, or the body brought to Illinois.

BOY SUFFERS BROKEN
LEG FROM ACCIDENT

While walking south on the hard road south of the city Monday night about 11 o'clock, Russell Wells of 605 North Church street, was struck from behind by a Ford coupe and thrown in the ditch with a broken leg. He was taken to Passavant hospital by John Berger, who happened along at the time, and is reported as doing well. The driver of the car that struck young Wells said that he had failed to see him because of the glare made by the headlights of a large car approaching from the south. The car that failed to dim did not stop. The injured youth is the son of Ernest Wells.

FOUR INJURED WHEN TWO CARS COLLIDE

New Berlin Man Received Serious Injuries and Jacksonville Woman Injured When Automobiles Met

J. W. Hohman of New Berlin and Walter Deemes of Springfield are patients at Our Saviour's hospital with numerous injuries, some of them which may prove serious, and Sister Lewis of the hospital and E. M. Tindall of east of the city sustained slight wounds as the result of a collision of two automobiles which occurred last night on the hard road just west of Arnold station. Sisters Digna and Policia, also passengers in one of the cars, while escaping injuries suffered from the shock of the collision.

The accident happened when Mr. Tindall accompanied by the Sisters was returning to Jacksonville from Springfield and the two men were driving east. In some manner the cars swung into each other as they were passing and the car occupied by the two men was completely demolished. So completely was the destruction of this car that it was difficult to tell what style it was. Mr. Tindall's car was also badly damaged.

Passing motorists assisted the injured persons from the wreckage and the two men were brought to the hospital, and the three Sisters were also brought to the city and Mr. Tindall was taken to his home.

SON OF M. W. OSBORNE
IS BADLY INJURED

Edward Brown Osborne, nine-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Osborne sustained serious injuries last night about seven o'clock, when he was hit by a car driven by Mrs. Stella Mahon of Pine street. The accident occurred when the lad started to go to Mr. Osborne's car which was parked in front of his home on Caldwell street. Mrs. Mahon immediately brought her car to a stop and Dr. Garm Norbury who was nearby hastened to the scene of the accident, and it was found that the injuries were such that it would necessitate attention at a hospital. The boy was then taken to Passavant hospital.

The lad is said to have come from behind a car that was parked on the street and stepped directly in the path of the Mahon car. When the car was picked up from the street blood was flowing profusely from wounds about the head, and examination later revealed a severe head injury and a badly bruised leg. The exact seriousness of the injuries could not be determined last night.

Extend Royal Welcome
To Art Extension Body

One of the most pleasant social events that has been held in this city for some time was the picnic meeting held last night at the Illinois college gymnasium in honor of the visiting members of the Illinois Art Extension Commission. Although the visitors were greatly delayed in reaching the city on account of the heavy rain, the crowd numbered in the hundreds, remained at the gym and a bountiful picnic supper was served when the guests arrived shortly after 8 o'clock.

The visitors came here from Petersburg, where they went to visit Old Salem. Owing to heavy rains which stopped them at that point, they did not visit this historic spot. The people of Petersburg furnished pilot cars to show them the way to the Jacksonville-Springfield hard road, and they finally succeeded in reaching this city. They started their fifth annual tour at Urbana last Sunday. Topping at Monticello and Springfield. On reaching here, they were met at Oak Lawn by a committee of citizens and piloted into the city. There are more than 60 in the party, people from various walks of life who are interested in a more beautiful Illinois.

After supper, Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp, chairman of the evening, called the assembly to order. Mrs. Barr Brown led the audience in the singing of "America." Dr. Rammelkamp told the guests something of the history of Illinois college, as he had been asked several questions concerning the institution. He then introduced Mayor E. E. Crabtree, who welcomed the guests, mentioning especially Henry P. Chandler, formerly president of the City club; Dr. R. E. Hieronymus, community advisor and head of the Art Commission tour; and Lorado Taft, the world famous sculptor and organizer of the artist group. Others in the party are Miss Nellie B. Walker, sculptor, Senator and Mrs. Dunlap of Savoy, Mrs. Lorado Taft and daughter, Miss Harleen James, secretary of the American Civic association, Mrs. Westenberg, vocalist, and Dr. and Mrs. Harry Cheney. Mrs. Cheney is a former president of the Illinois Women's Voters' League.

Praises City's Beauty
The response to Mayor Crabtree's address was given by Dr. Hieronymus, who praised the city for its beauty and expressed a desire that all those in the party should see it today. The next speaker was Dr. Carl Black, chairman of the Centennial Commission, who told the guests of the celebrations which have already been held and which are yet in prospect for the centennial year.

Mrs. Westenberg, one of the visitors, then sang two selections, the music for which was composed by Miss Anne Wakely Jackson. The singing was Miss Jackson's musical interpretation of the Joyce Kilmer's poem, "Trees," and Rachel Lindsey's "Potato Dance."

Each of the visitors was presented with a centennial button and a pamphlet describing the city. They will meet at 8:30 o'clock this morning at the Art association building on West College avenue, to resume their tour. They will drive about the city for about an hour, and will then start their trip to Winchester, Pittsfield and Quincy. They expect to close the tour at Peoria next Sunday.

Judge Glandon of Pittsfield was present at the gathering last night to extend the visitors an invitation to come there today, and did so briefly on the program. A number of Jacksonville residents are planning to accompany the tourists as far as Pittsfield.

PERMISSION GRANTED
FOR TRACK REMOVAL

Order Issued by Commerce Commission for Removal of Property To Establish Bus Service.

Authority for the removal of the South Jacksonville street car tracks was given yesterday by the Illinois Commerce Commission to the Illinois Power & Light corporation. As a result of this order the tracks will be removed rapidly. S. L. Perry, president of the village board of South Jacksonville stated yesterday. Transportation thru the village will be by means of a bus service beyond Michigan avenue and to Nichols park, by the Power and Light corporation. For some time it has been generally known among officials here that the request for the order allowing the removal of the tracks would be issued as both the utility corporation and officers of South Jacksonville looked favorably upon the move.

Several months ago South Jacksonville started preparations for laying South Main street with the limits and the street car company's assessment was approximately $15,000. The corporation and objections and when the matter was reviewed in county court the assessment was reduced several thousand dollars.

The matter was then appealed to the state supreme court. The removal of the tracks was later asked by the village, and the company did not oppose the request. A number of weeks ago there was a conference of South Jacksonville officials and representatives of the Power & Light corporation at which it was agreed that the tracks would be removed and a bus service established. The Commerce commission has issued a formal order making this possible.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cody will leave for Colorado today. They plan to visit Estes Park and other vacation centers while away from Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Alves and family of Decatur are visiting at the home of his parents.

K. P. FISH FRY

Postponed from Meredosa to Buckthorpe's timber, east of city, today at 6:00 o'clock Cars leave Castle Hall.

He told the audience that Miss Jackson's work as a composer is known widely and accepted by vocal artists.

Harry M. Capps was then called upon to give the history of cooperative government in this city and to tell what has been its value. The principal address of the evening was made by Henry P. Chandler. He related some of the rather hard encounters which the tourists had encountered during the day and then said that these aided in a revelation of human nature for what it really was. Even though we may think the world in general is going wrong and even if we find various evils seemingly in the lead, yet once in awhile the real worth of human nature is shown thru some hardship or trial. There are, he said, three attitudes we may take toward the evils in the world.

We may draw into our own inner circle and say such things do not concern us; we may deny the evils and denounce society; or we may with faith such as the people of the smaller communities visited by the commission are showing, go forward to overcome evil with good. The one preventive for crime in this world is the giving of right motives to the people, to take the places of evil motives.

Dr. Hieronymus Speaks
Dr. Hieronymus in his address gave praise to Jonathan Baldwin Turner and called upon his daughter, Mrs. Mary Turner Carriell, to stand. She received a rousing ovation from the audience. Dr. Hieronymus praised "Old Illinois," referring to it and the University of Illinois together. He spoke also in fitting terms of Dr. Edmund James, saying that if Jacksonville had done nothing else to justify its existence, its gift of Dr. James to the world would have been enough.

Mr. Taft closed the program with a few fitting remarks. He told of his anticipation of these trips from year to year, of his pride in the discovery of the beauty of Jacksonville, and his desire that his companions should see it. He regretted that some who had joined the tour in past years could not be on the present trip to see this city.

Each of the visitors was presented with a centennial button and a pamphlet describing the city. They will meet at 8:30 o'clock this morning at the Art association building on West College avenue, to resume their tour. They will drive about the city for about an hour, and will then start their trip to Winchester, Pittsfield and Quincy. They expect to close the tour at Peoria next Sunday.

Judge Glandon of Pittsfield was present at the gathering last night to extend the visitors an invitation to come there today, and did so briefly on the program. A number of Jacksonville residents are planning to accompany the tourists as far as Pittsfield.

CAR OVERTURNS EAST OF CITY; INJURES TWO

Chicago Men Badly Injured When Automobile Skids on Muddy Pavement and Is Wrecked

While driving west on the hard road from Springfield to this city yesterday morning, William Bailey and J. Runyon, salesmen for Chicago paper houses, were seriously injured when their car overturned three miles west of New Berlin, pinning both men underneath. The two were taken to Dr. T. R. Maxwell's office at New Berlin where they were given temporary relief following which they were rushed to St. John's hospital at Springfield.

The two men are well known in Jacksonville. Bailey is a representative of the Whiting Paper company and Runyon of the Moser company. The two left Springfield Tuesday morning on a trip to Jacksonville printing houses. West of New Berlin their machine skidded on mud at the intersection of the hard road and a dirt road. The driver lost control of the machine and plowed down the side of the road for about 200 feet. At that point the machine jumped a ditch, crashed through a telegraph pole and turned upside down. The two men were pinned beneath the wreckage of the car.

A truck driver happening along some minutes later saw the overturned machine and investigated. Seeing the two bodies under the car he called help and succeeded in freeing them.

Bailey's condition is believed serious. He has a number of fractured ribs and may be injured internally.

PRISONER MAKES BREAK
FOR LIBERTY; IS SHOT

Horace Fairchild, on Parole from Penitentiary, Receives Wound Yesterday When Attempt Is Made to Escape from Officer

Horace Fairchild of this city was wounded by a shot from a revolver fired by Deputy Sheriff Henry Strawn, when Fairchild made a dash for freedom from the south porch of the county jail yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The attempted break for liberty came when Deputy Strawn was taking Fairchild to the county jail where he was to be made a prisoner. After a chase of several blocks the prisoner was recaptured and is now an inmate of the county jail.

The revolver shot inflicted a flesh wound in the youth's left thigh, passing thru the side of the limb and out the other side. Dr. H. C. Woltman, county physician, dressed the wound. He stated yesterday afternoon that it was not serious.

Fairchild has been out of Chester penitentiary, on parole for four months. He had been sentenced to the penitentiary for chicken stealing. Information was conveyed to the sheriff's office that he was carrying a firearm, and that was the charge the officers intended to prefer against him yesterday.

He was on Diamond Court street yesterday when Deputy Strawn approached him and relieved him of a 38-calibre Smith and Wesson revolver. The officer then started to the jail with his prisoner and it was just at the entrance that he made his attempt to escape.

He ran east along College avenue but two pedestrians were in the way and he waited a second and then fired, and although hit the boy continued to run. He ran over to the rear of Leck's Market on East State street, where he was nabbed by Sheriff Wright and Deputy Strawn.

Fairchild was convicted here six years ago of chicken stealing and sentenced to the penitentiary. About a year ago he was paroled and then sent back after having engaged in a fight it is said. His second release came only a few months ago.

Deputy Strawn in discussing the affair said he believed that the only way to stop Fairchild was by shooting, otherwise he would have probably escaped.

MISS VIERS BACK
FROM CONVENTION

Returns From Annual Conference of Social Workers Held in Denver, Colorado the Past Week.

Miss Eva Viers returned yesterday morning from Denver, Colo., where she attended the fifty-second annual national conference of social workers, which was in session in that city during the past week. Miss Viers reports a very enjoyable and profitable trip. She said that because of the fact that Denver is so far removed from the center of population of the United States that the sessions were not so largely attended as at previous conferences.

One of the important parts of the program was an address by William John Norton, president of the social workers, and secretary of the Detroit community fund. Mr. Norton said, "The great mainspring of social work is neither science, nor ethics, nor political philosophy—it is love. It is the quality springing from the soul of man that places another on the cross for childhood; that makes a father work for those dependent upon him until he drops; that causes the neighbor to pause in the self-absorption of his affairs and carry comfort to those who are stricken near him; that sends gay-hearted youth into the torturing hell of battle for home and for country."

"Love makes organized social work imperative in a highly organized society. For the antithesis of love is selfishness and selfishness holds sway largely in any competitive system. We play the game hard and many win and many lose."

Another interesting feature of the conference was a debate between Owen R. Lovejoy, who has been associated with social work throughout the country for twenty years (and Hon. Charles S. Thomas, former senator of Colorado and at one time governor of that state. The debate dealt with the Child Labor Amendment.

Miss Viers said that the keynote of the conference was given at the smaller group meetings, where emphasis was laid on knowing better the persons that are being helped. A social worker should know the background, the personality and remember that no two cases will apply to the same rule.

Employees nearby came to his aid and saved his life. However, he was found to be seriously injured and was taken to the hospital.
